Medical.

DR. J. C. YOUNG,

edical and Surgical

INSTITUTE.

CONSULTATION IN ALL CASES, FREE.

CURES GUARANTEED, OR NO PAY REQUIRED.

IN ALL CASES WHERE CONFIDENCE IS REQUIRED THE UTMOST SECRECY MAINTAINED.

The above rules, established by Dr. J. C. Young in 1856, d which have done so much secure the reputation of this stitute, are still adhered to, fording those in need of edical aid, the certainty of re and the utmost confidence. There is nothing of so great portance to the sick as to ow where to find a physi- an whose skill and humanity ve assurance of proper and [illegible] treatment. The Doc- r would respectfully call the tention of those of both sexes ho are suffering or in trouble the invariable success that s marked the career of the stitute in the seventeen years its existence.

It is unnecessary in this c n ction to enumerate all the mplaints treated at the In- stitute, but the Doctor feels it s duty to call especial atten- on to that terrible scourge, SEMINAL WEAKNESS, That is sapping with its in- diousness the very life of its ctims; in the treatment and re of which the Institute has rned so enviable a reputa- on.

THE MISSION OF COLD WATER.—Mr. [illegible] has remarked that it was a great institution [illegible] navigation. So it is [illegible] it will [illegible] for man [illegible] this hot weather rightly used. Don't mix it when you are heated. Don't drink too much of it at any time. We do not mean that you are to qualify it craftily with old rye [illegible] how it altogether, but draw it very light in the hydrant so long as the thermometer is above the nineties. If you have the self-denial to take cold water and gargle the throat and wash the mouth out with it without swallowing a drop you will quench the thirst more perfectly than if you guzzle a gallon. Above all use it on the outside [illegible]. Don't run to an extreme. Don't be soaking in a bath or swim till your vital energies are exhausted and the tone of your stomach lowered so as to invite diarrhoea, but wash and bathe the whole body when you wake up in the morning and before going to bed at night rub it down with a wet towel. You will find that you have gained a hundred per cent in health and strength in a week. No [illegible] as a general thing [illegible] in their persons than [illegible] is water used any more freely for bathing [illegible] on the plat[illegible] To such we say wash [illegible] yourselves daily [illegible] health [illegible] Try it and see.

The following paragraphs are the latest specimens of the political betting books for the approaching campaign:

[illegible] Under the foregoing heading the last issue of the Philadelphia Sunday Mercury [illegible] has the following:

A blatant [illegible] a few days since happening in company with some gentlemen in this city offered to bet $100 that Governor Seymour would not carry his own State, New York. One of the company, a responsible [illegible] took it and [illegible] the [illegible] open to all Radicals. He will name [illegible] States and will bet $10 000 on each State that Seymour will carry [illegible] $20 000 that Seymour (if he lives) will be the next President of the United States and $5 000 that no Radical will dare accept the proposition and put up the money. This is a fine chance for Wilkes of New York.

This is a fine chance, indeed, but it significantly measures the true hopes of Seymour and his friends. The first proposition is simply a bet that Seymour will carry six States, because every State got by Seymour beyond that number would be $10 000 in the pocket of the Mercury man. Taking this to be a confession of Seymour's defeat, the supplementary bet of $20 000 that he will be the next President, if he lives, only increases the six States to eight, while the $5 000 extra [illegible] makes the whole [illegible] that Seymour will carry eight and a half States in the November election. Now, though our polite friend of the Mercury thinks this is so very liberal that it ought to make [illegible] take to the water, we will do a little better. We will bet the Mercury or its man that we will name thirty States (which are twice as many and half as many more as he agrees to name) and will bet $10 000 on each State we name that Grant will carry it. We will then bet $20 000 to $10 000 that Grant will be the next President, and give $5 000 to the Mercury if it will get any one to accept these propositions and put up the money. This is a much finer chance for the Mercury and its man than the Mercury offers is for Wilkes, for in place of the twelve States it will name for Seymour we will name thirty for Grant, and give two [illegible] in the remaining bet instead of betting even. We await the Mercury's reply.—Wilkes' Spirit.

AS THEIR [illegible] CHANCES.—We extract the following paragraph from the World of Tuesday morning last:

We have received a note from a person who offers to bet from $500 to $5,000 that Governor Seymour will carry this State by 70,000 majority, and the same sum that Governor Seymour will be the next President of the United States. If the enthusiastic letter desires us to hold the stakes he has addressed the wrong journal. His note should be addressed to Mr. Theodore Tilton, editor of the Independent, who was mentioned in the Washington telegrams as a prominent bottle and stakeholder during the impeachment farce.

The above offers can be met and covered at this office for the highest sums named, to wit: $5 000 each, and we will then bet $5 000 to $3 000 we will win the first bet, and $10,000 that we will win the second—that is to say Grant will be the next President, instead of Seymour. We have no objection that either the editor of the World or Mr. Tilton shall hold the stakes. Will the World please name its man?—Wilkes' Spirit.

Frank Blair's Opinion of General Grant

The Leavenworth (Kansas) Times of Sunday, August 2d, gives the following, which is decidedly like Frank Blair:

The Hon. Frank Blair, after his speech in this city, in the presence of a number of gentlemen, and in reply to a remark that Grant was a fool, said:

Sir, you are mistaken. Grant is no fool. I know him well. I knew him before he went into the army, and when he used to haul wood into the city of St. Louis. I met him often in the service. I know the man. He is by [illegible] the greatest man of the age. Sherman, Sheridan and Thomas are good men, but Grant is worth more than all of them.

Oliver Cromwell and Napoleon Bonaparte were both great men, but, sir, I tell you that Grant is a greater man than Cromwell and Bonaparte put together. He is not a talker, but he is one of the deepest thinkers in the world.

He is ambitious, but he don't show it, and I will tell you that if he is elected President he will set up a monarchy and establish himself Emperor.

I tell you that the people are mistaken when they suppose Grant to be a fool. They have good reason to fear his greatness.

Yes, but don't you think that he will be controlled by such men as Sumner, Wilson and Washburne?

Controlled! Why, by G[illegible], he would sweep them away like straw.

But, General, don't you think that circumstances have done a good deal for Grant?

Why, h—ll, the fellow has made the circumstances. I tell you that is no luck.

The man that can spring right up from poverty and obscurity, and do what he has done, is no creature of circumstance. Circumstances don't run so much in one way.

I'm a Democrat, but if General Grant is such a great man as you say he is, I am a Grant man from this out.

Well, if you want a despotism vote for him, but if you want a republican form of government you will have to vote against him. [illegible] that he is a great man, and by [illegible] I simply tell the truth.

WATER SPOUT ON THE PLAINS.—The Santa Fe [illegible] of August 8th says:

A terrible water spout occurred in one of the canyons south of Cottonwood Station one day last week, by which three men and a number of horses were drowned. A Mr. Erickson had a large force of men and teams at work in the canyon cutting and hauling [illegible]. The flood of water came upon them so unexpectedly and with such tremendous volume and rapidity that they had no time to escape, but were overwhelmed by it, and three of the men and several of the teams drowned. The canyon was almost swept entirely free of the timber, and the old elm tree which had been a landmark for many years to the travelers on the plains was uprooted and swept down to the Platte river.

THE REBEL YELL.—A Brooklyn paper has the following:

Among the many significant incidents of the late Convention there was one occurrence which forcibly impressed us. We have not seen it mentioned elsewhere. When the repudiation plank in the platform was read it met with a strange wild burst of vociferous applause. A quiet looking man writing at a reporter's table near us, a correspondent of a Western paper as we afterward ascertained,—half rose from his work, struck the table with involuntary emphasis and uttered the startling exclamation: "By G—d, the rebel yell!"

In commenting upon the Soldiers' Convention in New York, the Springfield (Mass.) Republican says: The only men censured by it were good supporters of the Union [illegible] Blair and B[illegible] whom Grant had captured or superseded—and as Buckner and McClellan. And one of its finest [illegible] provide for a [illegible] meeting of [illegible] to join hands in [illegible] Congress and in ratifying the treason and anarchy nominations of the Democratic Convention. Truly these are great champions of the Union.

GEN. GRANT'S THIRD VISIT TO GALENA.—We take the following from the Galena (Ill.) Gazette of August 5:

Gen. Ulysses S. Grant is expected to visit his home in Galena perhaps to-morrow. He comes for the third time since he entered on active service for his country in 1861. Soon after he took command of the Twenty-first Regiment of Illinois volunteers he came for a day or two to visit his family and to make a few simple preparations for the comfort and convenience of himself and others, for the gage of war had been thrown down and he with other thousands had taken it up, in defence of his country, and he was about to throw his life into the midst of danger where nothing but the hand of the providence of God could save it from certain death. He went forth in the midst of danger, to be sure, to outward view, but protected by unseen safety, for the hearty aspiration of the good, the just, the patriotic and the brave went with him, and he passed through fire in every form unharmed. It was said by John Wesley that every man was immortal till his appointed work on earth was done. General Grant had work to do that he knew of, and his whole concern was, how he could do it for the best good to the endless millions that were to be sheltered and protected by the beneficent Government of the United States, as framed by its founders and made sacred by their blood. It is sufficient now to say that he did the work assigned to him well.

The next time he came to visit his home, things had somewhat changed. He had won in the opinion of the world the highest consideration possible as a patriot, as a General and as a man. He had swayed and combined a million of brave men, and organized victory as a whole in every part, until every enemy of the country had laid down his [illegible] in submission to the constitutional law, and the country once more slept in peace unbroken by the horror of war. He had conquered a peace, and on his modest brow had been placed the unfading laurel wreath of fame. He was received here in the spirit of hospitality and gratitude due to the great public benefactor.

He will come again if permitted, which God grant, accompanied by his immediate family and a few other near relatives, to spend a few days of rest at his quiet home, and may it be a green spot in after remembrance in the journey of his life. The rest cannot be long, for the people have taken knowledge of his honesty, his courage, his modesty, his fortitude and prudence, his integrity and fidelity to his country in every point and particular looking to the welfare and protection of popular rights, and they [illegible] short three months [illegible] be the next President of the United [illegible] In this case, as a statesman, as in the [illegible] as a commanding soldier, he has [illegible] be the hope of the true, the sincere and patriotic heart that beats in harmony [illegible] the best and highest welfare of the nation. On the line of action, indicated by his [illegible] it is proposed to reconstruct the country in a spirit of peace and prosperity. To this end millions of individual energies, acting in faith by their own volition, are at this moment directed. No great good to any people ever comes without a struggle. Such [illegible] to be the nature and condition of things. In view of the vast importance of this contemplated act there can be, without danger, no cessation of efforts until it is [illegible] and the work is done.

In advance, we welcome General G[illegible] family and friends to our city, where [illegible] will be sure to meet a hearty, generous and grateful hospitality, and we thank in advance, in the sensitiveness of true sincerity, all [illegible] who may wish to assist to make their visit here agreeable to them in every particular.

A Contrast

On the 1st day of July 1857 the national debt amounted to $29 060 386 90 By the 1st day of July 1860 it had swelled to $64 769 703 08 Here was an addition of $35 709 316 18 to the debt during the last three years of the last Democratic Administration This was the example which that party set when last in power At a time when there was no occasion for unusual expenditures it increased the debt at this rapid rate and now it preaches economy and asks to be again entrusted with power on the ground of its assumed honesty and its promise of reducing the expenses of the Government

We have seen how the debt was steadily and rapidly increasing while the Government was in Democratic hands To show how it has been managed by the Republicans since the close of the war when the extraordinary expenses stopped, attention is invited to the following figures

When the war ended, the debt of the United States, as compared with the present debt, was

July 31, 1865	$2 757 253 [illegible]
July 31, 1868	2 490 324 549
Reduction of debt in three years	$ 266 928 437

The following expenses of government have been paid in addition since the close of the War

Pensions	$ 10 000 000
Bounties to soldiers	50 000 000
Back pay arrearages etc of army and navy	74 000 000
Indian war	10 000 000
Refunded State expenses	10 [illegible] 000
Payment for property in war	11 000 000
Paid back pay etc due the navy at close of the War	35 000 000
Paid for Alaska (in coin)	7 200 000
Grand Total	$535 458 4[illegible]

These figures are computed from official sources It will therefore be seen that since the close of the war the Republicans, instead of increasing the debt after the example of the Democrats during their last three years of power, have effected an actual reduction of the debt to the amount of $267,000 000,—and have paid in addition to this, $535 000,000 of debts of various kinds, all of which with the exception of the money for the Alaska purchase and a few millions for the Indian war were debts springing out of the rebellion Furthermore, the interest on the public debt amounting during the last three years to $400,000,000 in coin, has been paid This is the financial record of the Republican party during the three years since the end of the war Let it be contrasted with the three years of the last Democratic Administration

W[illegible] ing Industry

It requires time and associated effort to awaken interest in any subject and send valuable information abroad concerning it, and for this reason Oregon is imperfectly known to the people of the other States. To some extent also, Oregon has been overshadowed by California, and the superior commercial advantages of that State and the importance it has acquired thereby, have engaged the attention of most persons looking west of the Rocky mountains This is natural enough, and it is useless and puerile to complain about it. To make Oregon known also is what is needed. It is gratifying to observe that there is prospect of improvement, or at least an increase of interest in this matter The [illegible] which have been commenced during the last year or two in our State are attracting attention abroad, and preparing the way, let it be hoped, for a better knowledge of our resources. Heretofore the productive industry of Oregon has received very little aid or encouragement from capitalists and what has been done has been accomplished mainly by the unaided labor of men of limited means When it is understood that investments here will be safe and profitable returns, practical [illegible] will receive the [illegible] of [illegible] and the production of wealth will be largely increased There is reason to hope that we are now approaching this improved state of things. We hear of men of capital coming among us with a view of ascertaining the practicability of making investments They ought to be furnished all the information and afforded every opportunity which the people can offer them

Doctors Disagree

The New York World, the newspaper which furnishes the principal portion of the brains for the Democratic party, says

> The party is pledged by the platform to appreciate the greenbacks to par, and use them for the payment of that part of the public debt which is not by express provision of the law due in coin

The meaning of this is that the debt, though payable in greenbacks is not to be paid until the greenbacks are on a par with and convertible into gold The Eastern men including Seymour himself, so construed the platform and they manipulated the Democratic party Their scheme, if they are earnest in it, is precisely equivalent to paying the debt in gold The bond holding Democracy of New York City run the Democracy of the nation and compel the little minnows out West to follow in their wake Were ever the masses of a party before made the victims of such fraud?

An Active Canvass

The political canvass in California is earnest, warm and exciting The Republicans are sparing no effort to carry the State and are working steadily and harmoniously The Grant and Colfax canvass is progressing under the direction of the Republican State Central Committee and speakers are assigned for labor in every county in the State The published programme of operations shows that the canvass is to be systematic and thorough A host of able speakers are in the field, and the meetings are appointed in such a manner as to reach every point in the State where an audience can be obtained The vigor with which the Republicans are conducting the canvass is in marked contrast with the apathy and dissatisfaction which were so visible among them last year The leading State of the Pacific is morally certain to cast its vote for Grant and Colfax

RAILROAD BONDS —The Pacific Railroad bonds are usually called a part of the debt of the United States but they are payable both principal and interest by the companies to the Government and therefore are actually no part of the national indebtedness These bonds now amount to $32 210 000

Last week the Salem Flouring Mills received 7 200 bushels of wheat

Washington News

WASHINGTON, Aug 29 —Gen Meade arrived to day and spent several hours in conversation with Secretary Schofield He will leave to night for a short visit to Pennsylvania

Gen Rosecrans is expected to night

The Indian Bureau has received advices from Superintendent Murphy, concurring the views expressed in Agent Wyncoop's letter that innocent Indians who desire to preserve the treaty pledges in good faith, should be protected, while he recommends that Indians who have been committing outrages be severely punished

Gen. Rosecrans returned this evening He states that his visit was of his own conception and undertaken for his own personal satisfaction to ascertain from representative men South whether there were any obstacles in the way of peace between that section and the North He was satisfied that the power which organized and sustained the Confederacy for four years against the efforts of the United States Government to suppress rebellion could exercise great influence in restoring peace, order and stability everywhere, and at the same time promote all the material interests of the country. He was received by Gen Lee and other prominent Southern soldiers with marked cordiality In all their personal conversation they were frank and unreserved Their conversations were mainly with reference to advancing common interests, irrespective of the causes which for a time divided the North and South, and resulted in the reconstruction acts of Congress Gen Rosecrans says his visit was satisfactory That the temper and tone of those Southerners were worthy of patriotic citizens There is no authority for the statement that he intends to issue an address signed by those with whom he has been in conference

The President in conversation with the delegation, expressed himself in favor of the election of Seymour and Blair

Gen Rosecrans has addressed a note to the newspapers editors who commented upon his visit to the White Sulphur Springs The note concludes thus Permit me through your columns to say to your readers and to all who love our country that my mission was one of my own conception inspired by a most earnest desire for the welfare of the nation for which I am as willing to lay down my life as any one who lies beneath our flag No party had anything to do with it nor any individual I alone am responsible Any information you have received to the contrary is erroneous

Senator Morgan is now here with Commissioner Rollins and other leading Republicans The question of a September session of Congress has been discussed and the opinion is quite decided that a call for a session at that time will be issued

SEYMOUR AND THE BONDHOLDERS On the 26th of June but a few days before the New York Convention Seymour made a speech at Cooper Institute in which the following passages occur Why is the bondholder wronged by the tainted credit of the Government so that he cannot sell his bond for as much by one third as the citizen of Great Britain gets for the bond of his government which bears a lower interest and why is his claim made odious in the eyes of the people by the fact that his interest is paid in specie while they are compelled to take debased paper? It is clear to every thoughtful man that public safety and honor will not admit of our having two kinds of currency for any length of time We must have a uniform currency for all classes There is but one question to be settled Shall our currency be uniformly good or uniformly bad? Are we to force the bondholder to take bad money? What a multitude of Pendletonians are cheated in supporting Seymour!

The owner of a quartz claim in Bohemia District is compelled to do fifty dollars worth of work on his claim or hire it done annually, or lose the right to his feet" Mining is being done quite extensively on several leads—the Excelsior Gray Eagle, City, Monterico Johnson, and several others

A colored youth obtained the first prize for declamation at Harvard, this year Last year a colored student was graduated at an English university with the highest honors Will the Democratic papers allow such Radical outrages to go unrebuked?

William Lannegan of Salem has been engaged for some time on a machine to raise himself from the earth, and travel through the air With some slight improvement he thinks it may succeed But the man has not yet been discovered who can lift himself over a fence by his own waistband

A rope walker is performing at Roseburg He has but one foot on which to perform his astonishing feats

FAILURE OR TRIUMPH Great issues are at stake in this Presidential contest The civil world will look with as much interest on our ballot box on the third of November as it did on our bullet battles of the rebellion The issue is still between liberty and slavery As the New York Tribune says

Liberty is the same all over the world Success here is success everywhere Failure in America means that Hungary and Ireland and Poland must still remain in bondage There is not a legitimist or despot in the Old World who does not pray for the election of Horatio Seymour To them it would have the historical significance of Charles succeeding Cromwell and Bonaparte overthrowing the Republic It would mean the arrest of progress the destruction of Equal Suffrage remanding the States in a condition of anarchy rebels ascending to power under the protection of the American soldiers When we bring this Democracy down to its last analysis we find the rebellion controlling strengthening mastering it Gov Seymour and his friends burning negro orphan asylums in New York found proper sympathy in General Forrest massacreing negro prisoners in Fort Pillow They meant the triumph of Democracy They failed and now they meet again in Tammany Hall to renew the effort The Wade Hampton of Chambersburg is the same Wade Hampton who comes into the Legislature from South Carolina He meant that the rebellion should win when he led [illegible] of his men [illegible] means the same to day If there is any difference it is that during the war he and his friends wished to destroy the Union and rule over its ruins —they now mean to take possession of the Union and rule it in the interest of slavery

ALASKA —The Commissioner of the General Land Office in a recent communication on Alaska says Mr Lorin Blodgett, the American climatologist in an able communication to this office estimates the amount of land in Alaska that can be disposed of to actual settlers under the land system of the United States at 20 000 square miles being 12 000 000 acres or a larger area than was supposed to exist in California prior to the admission of that State into the Union The most reliable estimate of agricultural land in California at present is about 83 000 000 acres How much a more perfect knowledge of Alaska may alter Mr Blodgett's estimate it is now impossible to say

IN A SAD PLIGHT —W R Hill, known as [illegible] was brought down from Oregon City [illegible] a sorry plight indeed He had been several days [illegible] Oregon City going about in a drunken and [illegible] was seen on Saturday below the city running as if frightened and he said to persons whom he met that [illegible] had attacked and tried to kill him. He finally [illegible] put in the jail where it seems he nearly put an end to his own life by butting his head against the wall [illegible] thought him insane and sent him down [illegible] Judge Marquam who was applied to for an [illegible] place him in the Asylum came down to see him [illegible] lay on a pallet on the wharf but being of the opinion that his delirium was that of drunkenness, instead of [illegible] proper he declined to send him to the Asylum and ordered him taken to the county hospital for [illegible]

HORRIBLE —On Saturday three Chinamen were discovered in a locked room in a building on S[illegible] street between Yamhill and Taylor in a horrible [illegible] One of them was lying [illegible] while two were [illegible] all three were sick and apparently alive [illegible] They were covered with filth and vermin, and the one lying down was fly blown and maggoty He, of course since died and has been buried and the others will go the same way [illegible] the building from the [illegible] but still living [illegible] was horrible [illegible] there must be [illegible] the room long since dead [illegible] are not aware what steps have been taken, for the care of the Chinamen still living [illegible] is a most horrible and [illegible] case

[illegible] —Some time since we made an item of the fact that a colt raised in Yamhill county had been sold in San Francisco for $1 [illegible] and gave the credit of raising him to Mr Myer [illegible] writes us that the animal was raised by [illegible] Mr Myer Our correspondent adds Mr Myer raises some fine horses but there are numerous others also, who raise fine horses in this county

BLIND FIDDLERS —The interior papers have frequent notices of a Blind Troupe which [illegible] to be travelling this way We are not enlightened as to the character of their performances further than that they play on the stringed instrument vulgarly called a fiddle [illegible]

PERSONAL —We were very glad yesterday to see our friend A B P[illegible] down again after a [illegible] of fever We do not [illegible] say that we are glad he had the fever [illegible] notwithstanding [illegible] that he has got over it

ASCENT OF MT BAKER.—Mr Edmund T Coleman who recently with Messrs Thos Stratton, John Tennant and David Ogilvy ascended Mt Baker contributes the following concerning the trip to the Victoria Colonist: "Two peaks were discovered, as surmised by me, one [illegible] by the other as seen from the West. As there is scarcely any appreciable difference in the height, the Stars and Stripes were planted on both and they were named after Generals Grant and Sherman respectively. The volcano lies between the two only a [illegible] view could be obtained of the crater by reason of a projecting cornice running round the summit of the [illegible], which rendered any attempt to gain a [illegible] highly dangerous. I estimated the height of the [illegible] to be 11 400 feet but it is possible that a more careful calculation and comparison of the aneroid barometer with a standard or mercurial one may give a different result. The party made a collection of minerals and plants, and have, it is believed, [illegible] some species which will be found to be new to science. Mr [illegible], whose knowledge of geology and long experience of gold mining in the mountain districts of California [illegible] his opinions to respect, noticed three extinct craters [illegible] from which have been obtained [illegible]. Mr [illegible] is also of opinion that there are [illegible] indications of gold as the formation is of sandstone commonly known as the coal measures."

Mr Ogilvy of the party says the party left Whatcom on the 5th Aug traveled up the Lummi and Nootsac rivers by canoe eighty miles then twenty miles through [illegible] country to what may be called the foot of the [illegible]. At the snow line, where vegetation ceases, the Indians camped allowing the explorers to reach the summit themselves, which they did the same day, and returned to camp in the evening. The distance [illegible], which was about six miles is said to have been most fatiguing, though not as perilous as was expected. Being obliged to return to the camp the same evening the explorers had only about an hour on the summit. The [illegible] of a volcano is established beyond a doubt, the crater being about 300 feet wide, and at least 600 feet deep, from which puffs of sulphurous vapor are being [illegible]. This crater lies between two high peaks of the [illegible] where the summit forms a plateau quite bare and free from snow, which is a quarter of a mile wide and half a mile long. The eastern peak, called after Gen [illegible], is the higher of the two. The most arduous part of the [illegible] was at the last pitch where the party cut 400 steps in the ice to reach the top. No signs of [illegible] were seen on the mountain except the huge foot prints of a bear, which the natives said was an old [illegible].

STATEMENT FOR AUGUST.—The following tables show the receipts of Oregon products by river steamers and barges, and the exports by sea-going vessels for the month of August. It will be seen that the trade of the month has been unusually small which is mostly accounted for by the two facts that the low stage of water in the Willamette river very nearly precludes shipments and farmers of the interior have been devoting almost exclusively to harvesting during the month.

MORTGAGE.—The Oregon Central (west side) executed yesterday a deed to [illegible] their first issue of bonds [illegible] document covering some [illegible] of legal cap paper. It names Charles [illegible] Barker of the city of Portland, [illegible] bondholders, and their duties in [illegible] set out in full. It covers all the [illegible] except individual subscriptions [illegible] of their proposed railroad as lies [illegible] Portland to [illegible] City. The first [illegible] of one thousand [illegible] at the banking house [illegible] in the city of New York. The bonds [illegible] by Britton & Rey, of San [illegible] style of the lithographic [illegible] of Oregon [illegible] looming up in the distance [illegible] county have agreed upon [illegible] which they will sign on fifty [illegible] bonds, and fifty [illegible] for that [illegible]. We are informed that [illegible] made a sale of a portion of [illegible] bonds at seventy cents on the [illegible]

FIRE COMPANY.—The [illegible] Circus next Thursday eve [illegible] of Protection Fire Company [illegible] having generously tendered their [illegible] of that company's devotion to [illegible] as an acknowledgment of the [illegible] owed by the Portland public upon [illegible] The fire company deserves en[illegible] shall hope to see a large audience [illegible] upon the occasion of its benefit [illegible] the niggardly policy of the City [illegible] to pay a cent [illegible] able expen[illegible] to be paid by the city. —W R Hill, known as "Buckskin [illegible]" [illegible] from Oregon City yesterday to [illegible]. He had been several days about [illegible] in a drunken and crazed state, [illegible] the city running as if fright[illegible] persons whom he met that three [illegible] tried to kill him. He finally was [illegible], it seems, he nearly put an end to [illegible] his head against the wall. The [illegible] and sent him down here [illegible] was applied to for an order to [illegible], came down to see him as he [illegible] wharf but being of the opinion [illegible] that of drunkenness, instead of in[illegible] ed to send him to the Asylum [illegible] to the county hospital for the [illegible]

[illegible] Saturday three Chinamen were found [illegible] room, in a building on Second street [illegible] and Taylor in a horrible condition [illegible] lying down while two were sitting up, [illegible] sick and apparently abandoned to die [illegible] with filth and vermin and the one [illegible] down and maggoty. He of course [illegible] been buried and the others will go the [illegible] in the building from the corrupt [illegible], was horrible beyond descrip[illegible] to the discovery as it was supposed [illegible] one in the room long since dead. We [illegible] steps have been taken for the care of [illegible] living. It is a most horrible and sick [illegible]

[illegible]—We learn that a change in the [illegible] the Western Hotel will take place to day. Mr Sewall retires from the firm with an [illegible] a visit to the east, and Mr Samuel [illegible] ship with Mr Dorcy. Messrs [illegible] have kept a good hotel and there can be [illegible] Dorcy & Holmes will keep up the [illegible] tion of the house.

[illegible] time since we made an item of the fact [illegible] raised in Jackson county had been sold in San [illegible] for $4,700, and gave the credit of raising him [illegible]. A friend writes us that the animal was [illegible], and not by Mr Myer. Our cor[illegible] Mr Myer raises some fine horses and others also who raise fine horses.

—The interior papers have frequent [illegible] which seems to be traveling [illegible]. We are not enlightened as to the character of [illegible] further than that they play on the [illegible] vulgarly called a fiddle sing etc.

[illegible] We were very glad yesterday to see our [illegible] out again after a severe attack [illegible]. We do not mean to say that we are glad he [illegible] and got out again but that he has got out [illegible] the fever.

LOST.—[illegible] day morning from No 98 Third street a [illegible] bird, with brown or greenish head and brown [illegible] a fine singer. A liberal reward will be [illegible] for its recovery. Apply to W H Wetsell or at the house, above mentioned.

AT THE HEAD OF NAVIGATION.—Upon the arrival of the [illegible] at Oregon City this morning the Success [illegible] for the head of navigation on the [illegible] to which [illegible] as far up as the heavy [illegible]

SET UP IN GOOD STYLE.—The readers of our advertising columns—and they are numerous—have already learned that Mr A Grabenheim has removed his boot and shoe establishment from First street to No 94 Front street but they may not all know that he is now set up in much better style than heretofore that he has the best exhibition of show windows of fine work to be found north of San Francisco that he has in his store room, all the styles of boots and shoes for either sex or any age, from infancy to three score and ten that he has in his manufacturing establishment no less than eight shoemakers and will [illegible] have more constantly engaged in making to order. These are all facts however as can be seen by calling at his new store opposite Kohn & Fishel's.

AN ARTIST.—Mr Bailey [illegible] of Cooper & Co's wagon and carriage shop has just turned out at the Western Hotel coach which has fine [illegible] and pictures which [illegible]. He has had it in hand for some time doing over and [illegible] varnishing and putting it right in various ways. It now appears with perhaps the best finish ever put upon [illegible] on this coast. On one [illegible] the door appears a perfect copy of the photographed picture of Castle Rock on the Columbia river and on the other is a splendid view of Mount Hood copied from Bierstadt's picture. The finish of the panels is so perfect that [illegible] dark [illegible] a man with half an eye can see to shave himself while the fine lines are almost as perfect as [illegible] appropriate. Mr Bailey is truly an artist [illegible]

THE LAST DAY OF GRACE.—The time allowed by [illegible] for removing awning posts from the verge of the sidewalks expired yesterday. It being the traditional last day of grace and the day on which most people begin to begin anew, there was of course a great deal of flutter among the owners of awning posts or stands within the prescribed limits. A great number of people were tearing down, or bracing up their awnings in all sorts of unheard of ways and in [illegible] small degree of [illegible] folding to get along the sidewalks with out bumps and thumps and bruised shins. About half the awnings in the city are, however, untouched and intact as yet. We suspect there will be lively times for a few days in the Recorder's Court in the way of answering charges paying fines and costs etc.

BURGLARS IN A CONVENT.—We are informed that on Saturday night some burglars broke into the Convent and church at Vancouver for the purpose of robbery. The sacristy was rummaged [illegible] and the whole building seems to have been pretty thoroughly searched. Nothing of great value however was found. The watchman at the Quartermaster's stables some two or three hundred yards distant saw two men leave the building, shortly after midnight and go down toward the river; but he was unable to give any alarm, and in fact, did not know at the time, that they were there unlawfully. The burglars are supposed to have come from the south side of the river.

ACCIDENTS.—Yesterday afternoon Charles Egan a son of Mr J H Egan, was injured seriously by the falling of an awning. He was in the act of untying a horse hitched to the awning post when the horse started back, pulling out the post from its fastenings. The post and scantling fastened to its top fell upon the boy's neck and leg breaking the latter. Mr [illegible] a carpenter working at Mr Miller's fell from a scaffold yesterday and broke his arm. Dr Giltner reduced the fracture and last evening the man was doing well.

TARGET PRACTICE.—Capt Mills of the Washington Guard informs us that the company will have its annual target practice on or about September 25th at the White House. This year the company will have no excursion no ladies accompanying and not many invited guests. They are going out for practice, and they mean business. There is to be some genuine shooting this time, and no fooling.

LAST ROSE OF SUMMER.—Yesterday morning, our friend J——y H—— kept his couch till an advanced stage of the morning. Said Johnny's governor "Well, Johnny you rose late this morning." "Yes," said Johnny with a yawn "its my last rose of summer." The old man reflected a moment and remembering that it was the last day of Summer, he thought he could see Johnny's point.

CIRCUS.—It will be seen by advertisement, that the Paris Exposition Circus will perform again in this city Thursday Friday and Saturday evenings of this week.

A GOOD IDEA.—Several parties knowing the value of keeping the advantages of our city before the public design getting up a Portland Business Directory to be distributed gratuitously at the Washington County Fair. Every one should have his business card placed in it. Mr G W Cannon will call upon business men to complete this Directory.

THE LADIES' RELIEF SOCIETY will meet in the basement of the Presbyterian Church to day (Tuesday) at 7½ o'clock.

CHARTRES COFFEE!

Manufactory Established in June, 1851

STEAM POWER NOS 629 AND 631 FRONT ST

HAS CONSTANTLY ON HAND GROUND AND ROASTED COFFEE, GREEN COFFEE of the best qualities, CREAM OF TARTAR and SPICES of all sorts.

The undersigned who has always enjoyed public confidence for the excellent quality of his Coffee, neglects nothing to justify the good name acquired by his productions the sale of which daily increases. The acknowledged superiority of his merchandise which commands here and in the markets of the interior a relatively higher price excites the cupidity of some manufacturers and every day he sees increasing the number of those who by counterfeit or imitation of his mark seek to deceive the public palming upon them their inferior productions for the genuine G VENARD CHARTRES COFFEE. This fraud can deceive nobody after a trial but only adds to the favorable opinion of the consumers the very flattering though unwilling testimony of the counterfeiters. Nevertheless buyers should be forewarned, and placed on their guard against this practice.

What poor you say Why save you friend
I ve more than half the w[illegible]ld can show
Such wealth as mine you cannot boast
Such bliss as mine you cannot know
I ve more than keenest head can sum—
Could ever dream of night or day
I ve treasures hid from sord d hearts,
No cunning thief can take

My riches never bring distrust
Between me and my fellow men
N[illegible] ev[illegible] pass on stirs my breast
To yield me hate for hate again
But pleasure, peace and joy they bring
They soothe my cares they make me glad,
They give delight I cannot name
And buy me comfort when I m sad

Come here and open wide your eyes,
You see earth s glory at my feet
You see the sky above my head
The sunshine on my garden seat
You see the love that lights my home
The children round my cottage door—
The birds the bees the grass and flowers,
And you have dared to call me poor!

Come here and open wide your ears
And hark the music morning makes,
When from the hills and from the woods
Her high and holy anthem breaks
Come here and catch the grand old songs
That Nature sings me evermore—
The whisperings of a thousand things
And tell me—tell me, am I poor?

Not rich is he, though wider far
His acres stretch than eye can [illegible],
Who has no sunshine in his mind
No wealth of beauty in his soul

Dr Gibbon's Dispensary,

616 KEARNEY STREET NEAR COMMERCIAL San Francisco Established in 1854 for the treatment of Sexual and Seminal Diseases such as Gonorrhoea Gleet Stricture Syphilis in all its forms Seminal Weakness Impotency etc Skin Diseases (of years standing) and Ulcerated Legs successfully treated

Horrible Diseases

How many thousands of persons both male and female are there who are suffering or in a measure exist from the effects of secret indulgence [illegible] absorbed into the system Look at their pallid emaciated and disfigured faces and their broken down constitutions disqualifying them for the happiness of marriage or the enjoyment of life In this horrid situation they made suffer until death closes the scene Let parents guardians friends attend to those who are suffering with any of these horrible self destroying maladies—see that they are cured for and saved before it be too late Send them immediately to Doctor Gibbon [illegible] and private [illegible] is certain to cure them [illegible] mercury or any injurious drugs It is by no means [illegible] who are afflicted or to those who [illegible] the welfare of their friends to be [illegible] of the many pretended doctors who infest all cities [illegible] skill in curing all diseases in a few days [illegible] the public by using the names of eminent physicians from Europe and other places Better for [illegible] strict inquiry or you may fall into the hands of these charlatans

Seminal Weakness

Seminal Emissions the consequence of self abuse This solitary vice or depraved sexual indulgence is practised by the youth of both sexes to an almost unlimited extent producing with unerring certainty the following train of morbid symptoms unless combatted by scientific medical measures viz Sallow countenance dark spots under the eyes pain in the head ringing in the ears noise like the rustling of leaves and rattling of chariots uneasiness about the loins weakness of the limbs confusion of vision blunted intellect loss of confidence diffidence in approaching strangers a dislike to form new acquaintances a disposition to shun society loss of memory hectic flushes pimples and various eruptions about the face furred tongue fetid breath coughs consumption night sweats monomania and frequent insanity If relief be not obtained should apply immediately either in person or by letter and have a cure effected by his new and scientific mode of treating this disease which never fails of effecting a quick and radical cure Dr G will give One Hundred Dollars to any person who will prove satisfactorily to him that he was cured of this complaint by the advice of the San Francisco quacks

MARRIED MEN,

Or those who contemplate marriage who are suffering under any of these fearful maladies should not forget the sacred responsibility resting upon them nor delay to obtain immediate relief

DOCTOR GIBBON is responsible and will give to each patient a written instrument binding himself to effect a radical and permanent cure or make no charge

CURED AT HOME

Persons at a distance may be CURED AT HOME by addressing a letter to Dr Gibbon stating case symptoms length of time the disease has continued and have medicines promptly forwarded free from damage and curiosity, to any part of the country with full and plain directions for use for Ten Dollars sent in registered letter or through Wells Fargo & Co

Caution to the Unfortunate

Beware of the San Francisco quacks and pretenders who with bogus parchment certificates [illegible] Some of these self styled doctors whose names are to be found in the daily and weekly newspapers of San Francisco and other places are tradesmen and became too lazy to work at their trades Some are blacksmiths shoemakers newspaper carriers intelligence office keepers etc Look over the San Francisco Directory and you will not find their Medical Institutes [illegible] will find their former occupations in it Look at the Directory for 1862 and 1863 The only way to avoid imposition is to make an inquiry—it will cost you nothing and may save you many regrets for as advertising physicians in eight cases out of ten are bogus there is no safety in trusting any of them until you know who and what they are Dr Gibbon does not deceive people by exhibiting bogus diploma certificates [illegible] patients letters etc Dr Gibbon will satisfy persons [illegible] at his office of his ability to treat diseases that he proposes to cure
